RELEASE

In consideration of the University's giving you the opportunity to participate in the event and arranging to record the participation:

1. You agree to the recording of your participation in the event and grant to the University permission under all rights (including, without limitation, copyright and performers' property rights) in such participation and all consents necessary to make the event available to students and researchers of the University to access online over a secure electronic network from a place and at a time chosen by them, without payment, liability or acknowledgment to you.

2. You acknowledge and agree that the University shall be entitled to edit, copy, add to, adapt or translate your participation as reasonably necessary and, in respect of your participation, your irrevocably waive in favour of the University and its licensees the benefit of all moral rights and performers' rights arising under the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 or similar rights arising under the laws of any jurisdiction.
3. To the best of your knowledge, your participation does not: (a) infringe intellectual property rights of any other person; (b) contain any material which is defamatory of any person; (c) contain any confidential information; or (d) contain any material that invades the privacy or breaches the data protection rights of any other person.
4. The University reserves the right not to use your participation in the version of the event made available for later viewing.
5. Your participation may comprise your personal data. You consent to the University: (a) disclosing such personal data to the University's service providers; and (b) transferring such personal data to countries which do not provide the same level of data protection as the UK. Please be assured that the University will take all reasonable steps to protect your personal data at all times.
6. This release form shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

By signing this release form, you confirm that you have read and accept the provisions set out above.
